

THREE EDUCATIONAL POLICIES

1 , DIPLOMA POLICIES (POLICIES ON ACADEMIC DEGREE CONFERMENT)

- Acquire the ability to understand and resolve cultural/social problems in various regional parts of the world equipped with advanced expert knowledge and engineering of multicultural studies.
- Acquire the ability to investigate, collect information and analyze various issues regarding multicultural society.
- Acquire interdisciplinary intellect and intercultural communication skills which can be utilized in various activities related to multicultural society.
- Acquire skills and literacy to collect and disseminate information in many languages.

2 , CURRICULUM POLICIES (CURRICULUM TO ACHIEVE ACADEMIC/EDUCATIONAL TARGET) THE CURRICULUM OF PROGRAM PROVIDES;

- Provide required and optional courses to learn various global and regional cases about history and current situation of intercultural frictions and exchanges from an interdisciplinary viewpoint and in order to explore what multicultural society is to respect diversity of human rights and cultures.
- Provide practical courses to improve proactive initiative, communication skills and problem-solving ability in multicultural society.
- Provide specialized courses to strengthen skills/literacy to collect and disseminate information in many languages in order to cultivate practical skills in multicultural society.

3 , ADMISSION POLICIES

- Person who has basic academic skills of sociology, literary/cultural research, psychology, linguistics, human rights contention, etc. in order to learn multicultural studies.
- Person who is willing to take on a challenge to learn deeply about shaping of multicultural society where people with different cultures, languages, philosophies, religions, values and positions coexist, as well as to resolve new problems.
- Person who has strong interest and motivation in contributing to the community through multicultural studies.